

NEWSPAPER IN EDUCATION VENDORS

1. NIE Institute, Doug Alexander

www.nieinstitute.org/

NIE Institute has aggregated instructional materials on a variety of subjects on its website (nieteacher). Materials are available to member newspapers in PDF and IWB (interactive white board). Contact Doug Alexander at:

dalexander@nieinstitute.org or 301-275-3473

2. Hollister Kids, Peter Landry

www.hollisterkids.com/

Hollister Kids offers tabs, in-paper features and other services.

3. Hot Topics/Hot Serials, Debby and Ned Carroll

www.hottopicshotserials.com/

Hot Topics/Hot Serials offer tab sections, serial stories and on-going support for NIE websites served by its Wiki.

4. Kidscoop, Vicki Whiting

www.kidscoop.com/

Kidscoop offers in-paper features, monthly tabloid sections, special tabloid sections and other services.

5. NIE Online, Jan Grabowski

<http://nieonline.com/>

NIE Online specializes in maintaining NIE websites for newspapers and newspaper groups that subscribe. NIE Online adds local content for subscribing newspapers and offers other NIE content for newspapers.

6. Pigskin Geography, Al Wilson

www.pigskingeography.com/

Pigskin Geography supports the instructional use of newspapers' sports coverage. Programs include football, basketball, racing and more.

7. Mini Page, Universal Press Syndicate

www.amuniversal.com/ups/features/mini\_page/index.htm

The Mini Page is a weekly feature owned by Universal Press Syndicate. To reach the managing editor, Lisa Tarry, email LTarry@amuniversal.com. Call (800) 255.6734 or 816.581.7500.

To access archived editions of the Mini Pages created by Betty Debnam (1969-2007), visit <http://www2.lib.unc.edu/dc/minipage/>.

8. World of Wonder

http://www.universaluclick.com/text\_features/world-of-wonder

The website provides samples of this weekly feature, available for purchase.

9. Myvocabulary website, Jan Cook

www.myvocabulary.com

The couple that run this website encourage NIE programs to link to their site. Make sure you contact the Cooks if you link to their site.

SERIAL STORY VENDORS

Here are the main sources for serial stories; some vendors mentioned above also provide serial stories and features.

FREE SERIAL STORIES

NIE Institute — (Free serial stories for subscribers)

www.nieinstitute.org

American Press Institute

www.americanpressinstitute.org/youth-news-literacy/resources/serial-stories/

www.americanpressinstitute.org

FEE-BASED SERIAL STORY VENDORS

Breakfast Serials, Avi

www.breakfastserials.com/

Laid-back West

www.laid-back.com/home/

Mary Maden

www.marymaden.com

www.marymaden.com/Newspapers\_In\_Education.htm

Missouri Press Association, Dawn Kitchell

www.mopress.com/NIE\_Serial\_Story.php

www.mopress.com/nienews.php

NC Press Foundation

<http://ncpressfoundation.org/chapter-stories/>

www.ncpressfoundation.org

Teach Up, Mike Peterson

www.teachup.com